

主旨: More training in Putonghua & reading/writing Chinese

Dear Staff,

As a HK resident, I feel that should be more emphasis placed on training minorities and those who are not fluent in Mandarin and adept in Chinese word processing.

As a Canadian expat, I do not have the same avenues open to me as a local HK resident who is educated and trained in the local language and culture. I would like to see more affordable language training (in reading and writing Chinese) and Chinese word processing. Currently, CUHK is offering Mandarin languages courses to non-natives but the tuition fee is quite expensive (about HKD$4,600 per term).

I hope you consider these points.

Thank you,
Andy Chan
