主旨: Give Views

Comments:

Why don't you guys think about young kids whose 15 years old or above in stead of only focus on only 18 years old adults can work. Because I recognise that there are lots of students drop school after form three because of there academic results, family problems or peer influence. etc