

主旨: Give Views

Comments:

family is the basis of development of a city.

"proper" family shall contain a flat, sufficient money and father and mother to support the living and future generation.

But , now hong kong has no this distant advantages. High price housing and low salary and worse education programme with interpersonal relationship have no use for future development.

Teenagers should be future of society. But , now Hong Kong's teenagers are not future of HK. Baby born is the key element of sustainability.