Please give 'one time per person' tax allowance for those rejoined labour force (both men and women) to take up employments again after they left the labour force for whatever reasons before.

For example, the government can consider giving $12000 tax allowance (i.e. equivalent to $2000 per month in the first taxable year to each person who re-enter the labour force after he/she withdraw from labour force in previous taxable year,

Thank you!
