

主旨: Give Views

Comments:

Due to the long queue in the public hospital for the reproductive service, I had went to a private hospital for IVF. Hong Kong reproductive health service was very expensive & I totally understand it is difficult for the government to subsidize it. But why don't the government give us a tax refund for the expense of using the reproductive service? This little help from the government would be great.