外來人才和勞工--importing labour / manpower from mainland (本地畢業生&專才 excluded) should base on the same conditions as importing domestic helpers from Indonesia. Employers should provide accommodation under strict monitorship to avoid any illegal side employment or other engagement in the illegal activities. Also, baby born under the circumstances should not entitled the citizenship. Should such imported manpower be exempted from maximum working hours and minimum wage because their service terms should under a different scheme as local people doing. No MPF should require.
