

主旨:

Give Views

Comments:

Hong Kong should extend Retirement Age to 70 years old and beyond -- It takes years of education and training to develop satisfactory work force, it is a waste if the work force is restricted to work further after a certain age.

Outside labour has limited or no benefit to Hong Kong -- they are not earning for the purpose of contributing to Hong Kong. They are outsiders.