

主旨:

Give Views

Comments:

The Govt should promote half day work for women. Most women would like to take care her family, but at the same time still have a part time or half day work to maintain her family's living standard. The Govt can promote in govt departments / bureau first.

Extension of retirement age is not supported since the retirement age over 60 shall be decided by the employee but not determined by gvot policy.